INEDITED GREEK INSCRIPTIONS.

At the moment of going to press the following inscriptions were received from Mr. M. M. Fottion, U. S. Consular Agent at Mytilene, to whom thanks are hereby addressed. It would be a great gain to archæological studies if other gentlemen in official positions on archæological fields would follow this example, and, from time to time, communicate discoveries which are made, as they are often lost sight of for want of a public record.

These three Greek inscriptions were found in the town of Mytilene on June 17th, 18th and 10th, respectively. No. 3 comes from the garden of Aryiri Paraskevow.
